

It is German Butchery's responsibility that all Visitors entering the premises follow Good Hygiene Practices and the sites HACCP food safety program.

PRIOR TO ENTRY VISITORS MUST.

- Report any Foodborne illness or contagious illness they have had recently
- Sign in on the Visitors Register
- Cover all open wounds with a blue metal detectable band-aid
- Leave belongings in the Office. No personal belongings are permitted to be taken into the production areas.
- Not take any glass or wooden items into the production areas. Mobile phones must not be used.
- Remove all jewelry and watches with the exception of;
 - Plain ring with no stones
 - Medic alert bracelet
 - Nose piercings which can't be removed

ON ENTERING THE PRODUCTION AREA VISITORS MUST.

- Be always accompanied by a staff member
- Wear a lab coat / Disposable apron
- Wear a hairnet and a beard net (if growth is >2mm)
- Wear gumboots or shoe covers if shoes are inappropriate for production area
- Use boot wash to clean boots that are appropriate for production area.
- Wash, dry and sanitize hands
 - On entry
 - After coughing, sneezing, using a handkerchief or disposable tissue
 - After handling waste/garbage
 - Before handling products or raw materials
- Not consume food/beverages in the production area
- No smoking is allowed in the facility. There are areas outside the facility allocated for smoking.
- Wear gloves when handling food products
- Not engage in any pranks or unsafe behavior which may lead to accidents and/or food contamination incidents
- Follow any directions given during an evacuation. The emergency assembly point is front car park.
- Report injuries as soon as practicable.

ON LEAVING THE PRODUCTION AREA VISITORS MUST.

- Sign out on the Visitor Register

ALLERGENS: Allergens handled on site are Milk, Soy Gluten (Oats), & Sulphites.